GERMANY IS NOT SORRY FOR HER CRIMES

CANNOT CONDEMN SINKING LUSITANIA SAYS DR. DERNBERG

HER CONDUCT OF WAR WAS NO MORE CRIMINAL THAN THAT OF THE ALLIES

GERMANY HURT MORE BY MORAL CONDEMNATION THAN FINANCIAL STIPULATION

By CARL D. GROAT
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Berlin, Nov. 27.—Germany feels that in her conduct of the war she was no more a criminal than the allies and she is not seeking forgiveness for herself or others, according to Dr. Bernhard Dernburg.

In a remarkable open letter to Foreign Minister Puerrydon, of Argentina, who is attending the league of nations in Geneva, Dernburg stated today that he could not condemn the sinking of the Lusitania without disloyalty to his country.

Dernburg declared Germany is "willing to prove the means used by Germany during this war were neither in proportion nor kind any more criminal than those used by her adversaries," and asserted that "we neither seek excuse nor ask for forgiveness from others or ourselves."

In explaining why he addressed the letter to Puerrydon, Dernburg said: "You were first to stress so energetically the necessity for a league compromise of the great powers. You were also the only one to find encouraging words in recognition of Germany's loyalty in carrying out the treaty. This is the reason I venture to address you."

Dernburg said the German people were not hurt so much by the economic or financial stipulation of the treaty, as by the spirit of which they were branded by a stigma of moral unworthiness which destroys at the outset the spirit of good will without which the league cannot survive. He declared that the league examined the treaty condemnation of Germany in a "spirit of justice."

"Few will consider the present league structure a fitting instrument to obtain fulfillment of its sublime task to send peace on earth through co-operation of all men," Dernburg said. "The majority of people however believe in the possibility of its perfection."

PEACE RESOLUTION CANNOT BE ADOPTED DURING DECEMBER

(By United Press)
Washington, Nov. 27.—Senator Underwood of Alabama, democratic leader of the senate, predicted today on his return to Washington, that the proposed resolution declaring a state of peace with Germany, would not be adopted at the December session of congress. He predicted that even if enough votes could be mustered to adopt it, the resolution would be vetoed by President Wilson.

VETERAN PRINTER SHOTS HIMSELF

(By United Press)
Mankato, Minn., Nov. 27.—Wm. J. Eich, veteran printer and former officer of the St. Paul typographical union, shot himself early today and died shortly afterward. He left a note dated Aug. 16, 1920, requesting that he be buried in a pine box with rope handles.

FLAXSEED PRICES DROP $3 BUSHEL IN SIX MONTHS

SLUMP IS PRACTICALLY TWICE AS MUCH AS WHEAT IN DOLLARS

Minneapolis, Nov. 27.—Dropping in price practically twice as much as wheat in dollars and 25 per cent more in ratio during the six months from May to November 1920, flaxseed was pointed to by Minneapolis linseed crushers as probably the most thoroughly "deflated" of northwestern raw products.

When flaxseed touched $1.80 a bushel soon after this week's trading began at the Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce, it crossed its third dollar line in its downward trend from the price of $4.80 a bushel, established for October contracts when trading in flaxseed futures first began in the Minneapolis markets last spring. Linseed oil in tank car quantities has fallen from a price of $2.25 a gallon 18 months ago to approximately 65 cents a barrel with oil selling around 75 cents a gallon. Incident to the decline, a drop of 40 cents a gallon in wholesale paint prices was reported from the east.

An American crop of nearly 10,000,000 bushels of flaxseed compared with 7,000,000 last year, a Canadian crop of about 6,000,000 bushels, considerable larger than that of 1919 a large Argentine crop and a slackening of the demand for paint created by wartime ship construction, together with a greatly reduced use of paint consequent to a slashed national building program have all been powerful factors working for the lower flax prices, crushers said.

FORD BREAKS WORLD'S RECORD

FOR AUTO PRODUCTION IN ONE DAY TURNING OUT 5,673 "HENRYS"

(By United Press)
Detroit, Mich., Nov. 27.—The world's record for automobile production in a single day was broken at the Ford automobile plant here Thursday when 5,673 "Henrys" were turned out. ### BIG FIGHT OVER MARY PICKFORD'S DIVORCE EXPECTED

(United Press)
Minden, Nev., Nov. 27.—A long and spirited fight over the legality of the divorce of Mary Pickford, movie star, from Owen Moore, was practically certain today when attorneys arrived for argument of a motion for Moore's attorneys to quash action brought by the state of Nevada to annul the divorce.

One of the first moves will probably be action by the attorneys for the state to disqualify Judge Langan, who is presiding in the case. He was the judge who granted the original divorce.

Which ever way the decision on today's motion goes, attorneys said an appeal will be carried to the supreme court of Nevada.

What U. S. Expects of Mexico Before Recognition is Granted

POLICE SEEK ALLEGED SLAYER OF MILLIONAIRE

(United Press)
Ardmore, Nov. 27.—A woman hunt was held throughout the southwest today. Police in every city from Kansas City to the Pacific coast were searching for Mrs. Clara S. Haman, charged with firing the shot which later proved fatal to Jake L. Haman, millionaire oil man and republican national committeeman. Since the woman disappeared soon after shooting Haman, there has been varied reports of her fleeing to California, seen in Tulsa, Oklahoma City and half a dozen other towns. Police entertain the suspicion that she may be hiding in this territory. Her trunk was held at the union station at Kansas City with detectives watching for the personal claimant.

ST. PAUL WOMAN WANTS $100,000 FOR LOSS HUSBAND'S LOVE

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Nov. 27.—"Hilltop" society heard loud echoes of the Stone-breaker alienation affection suit today when Mrs. A. W. Craighead, filed suit against Mr. and Mrs. J. E. ### GET VERDICT AGAINST MARINE MILLS BANK

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Nov. 26.—Kelsey F. Chase, A. L. Mellenthin and A. Hirschman, formerly heads of the Peoples Bank, were awarded a verdict in their suit against the Marine Mills State bank by a jury in Judge Hanft's court today. ### INTERNATIONAL TRIBUNAL ON DISARMAMENT

LEAGUE OF NATIONS COMMISSION APPOINTS SUBCOMMITTEE TO DRAFT PROJECT

HENRY WOOD,
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Geneva, Nov. 27.—The league of nations commission on disarmament has authorized Sir Cecil Hurst to draw up a tentative plan permitting the league to exercise the most effective control of traffic in war material. The three commissions have named a subcommittee of ten to draft the final project for an international tribunal which will be presented to the league assembly within a fortnight. The commission has decided to retain the amendment to the Brussels court and start with the project of jurisdiction only as public opinion demands.

When the assembly adopts the final draft it will establish an international court or ask the government to call an international convention to inaugurate it.

Cecil, in an interview, said the government is nebulous, that it is a "great experiment" and "in no way ironclad. It merely consists of a broad scheme which calls for modification and amendment more readily."

Is Arrested for Assault- ing 17 Year Old Girl

(United Press)
St. Paul, Nov. 26.—Recognized by his victim while riding on a street car here today, Gust Meyers, 29, was arrested by police and charged with assaulting a seventeen year old school girl two months ago. He was a laborer on a school building.

ARMY AND NAVY FOOTBALL GAME

WEST POINT CADETS AND ANNAPOLIS SHIPMEN IN ANNUAL CONTEST

HENRY FAURELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, Nov. 27.—Within the high rock bound confines of Coogan's Bluff surrounded by blue and khaki, the army and navy this afternoon went to settle a little argument of many years standing.

The fleet of Uncle Sam and land garrison were gathered here for the twenty-third annual football battle between West Point cadets and Annapolis midshipmen.

Forty-five thousand, including a few civilians, who knew some commander or colonel who could get them a ticket, were here to look on the game scheduled to start at two o'clock on the Polo grounds. Hotels were crowded. Army headquarters at the Astor was a scene of khaki. Around the Commodore where the navy craft was, there wasn't a thing to be seen but blue uniforms and "sweet young things." The navy sure was living up to its reputation for "having a girl in every port."

In twenty-two games the army has won eleven and the navy ten and one resulted in a tie.

STEEL BARGE GOES ASHORE ON OREGON COAST

HAS CREW OF 15 BESIDES CAPTAIN AND FAMILY—FEARS FELT FOR THEIR SAFETY

(United Press)
Portland, Ore., Nov. 27.—Fears for the safety of the steel barge "W. J. Tirrie" and eighteen persons aboard, were expressed in shipping circles here today.

The Tirrie flying the Chilean flag, went ashore during the night on James Island off Quillayute, Wash. Rescue was almost impossible today because of the giant waves dashing over the ragged rocks. An eighty mile gale was blowing.

The barge, loaded with lumber, was being towed by the steamer Santa Rita enroute from Tacoma to the western coast of South America when driven ashore. Due to the heavy seas it was necessary for the Santa Rita to cut loose the barge.

The Santa Rita is reported standing by to give any possible aid. The barge Tirrie has a crew of fifteen besides Captain Jensen and his wife and child.

FIGHT FOR BLUE SUNDAY LAWS ON

(By United Press)
New York, Nov. 27.—The fight for blue Sunday legislation in thirty state legislatures fathered by the Lord's Day Alliance, became more bitter today with various organizations lining up for or against it.

James A. Flaherty, head of the Knights of Columbus Union, said their organization didn't oppose "sane reform," but said the K. of C. was against prohibition of Sunday sports. Samuel Gompers, head of the American Federation of Labor, denounced the backers of the "Puritan drive" as assuming they are working in behalf of the laboring man.

"Labor has not called on them for assistance and they cannot speak for labor," Gompers said. "The men who work have a right to spend Sunday in wholesome recreation."

BENNIE LEONARD DEFEATS JOE WELLING IN FOURTEEN ROUNDS

(United Press)
New York, Nov. 27—At least fifteen thousand persons were more contented than ever that Benny Leonard is the lightweight champion.

For two important reasons—he weighed 134 pounds, less than the lightweight limit, and beat the rugged Joe Welling almost to a pulp, in fourteen rounds last night in Madison Square Garden.

For twelve rounds Leonard waited his chance and seemed to be content. In the thirteenth round his chance came when he rocked Welling with a right hook to the jaw. He opened with a fusillade to the right and left that sent the Chicago boy to the floor three times. The referee stopped the bout in the fourteenth round.

SIMPLEST THINGS

You know the simplest things have been the longest awaiting discovery. Mergenthaler had his wonderful typesetting machine perfected for several years—all but the simplest thing about it. And that simple little thing was the "spaceband", that separated the words. But it was the hardest thing to get. The phonograph is so simple that the first time you saw one you felt like going out behind the woodshed and kicking yourself because you did not invent it. For a century human carried coal and wood to burn under boilers to make steam to generate power. Along came a man who discovered the simple expedient of exploding gasoline in a cylinder and hitching the recoil to the machinery. And a few years ago Dr. Palmer, of Davenport, discovered the spine is the keyboard to health, and he and others have perfected the theory of spinal adjustments until now it is a DEMONSTRATED FACT that the cause of disease is in the spine, and Chiropractic Vertebral adjustments eliminate this cause in the majority of human afflictions.

Spiders and Good Fortune.

Spiders, according to superstition, are omens of good fortune, therefore to kill them provokes wrath and invites disaster. Superstitious people will tell that the bride who finds a spider in the folds of her wedding gown may look forward to a married life of great prosperity.

OUR own opinion is that annual repair costs on the Hupmobile are less than those of any other car in the world.

It is also one of the very few cars—out of several hundred—so noted for fine performance and low-cost over a long life that it always commands a high price when re-sold.

These are the qualities which make the Hupmobile worth what it costs, and without which no motor car is ever worth what it costs.

Life's Preparation for Death. Life is more important than death. In fact, the work of death can only be safely done in life. The practical truth is that which touches us at once, the most sober and solemn view of life, that every single thing we do is actually making death either harder or easier.—Faber.

longer than his. He succumbs to the will of his wife. He marries her. Joan is heart broken at the news, and later weds Dave Whorf, captain of a fishing vessel. Because of the ill feeling between the Portuguese and their neighbors, Abel is ostracized by his people as the result of his marriage to Glory. He also loses his job.

Abel's mother dies of grief over her son's disgrace, and Abel and Glory go from bad to worse. Glory later carrying on an affair with Jose, manager of the circus. And as the months drag themselves into years, two children are born to Joan and Dave. Then Fate deals unkindly with this little family and Dave is drowned while trying to make shore in a small boat.

Fate also continues to take a hand in this tangle of hearts and sorrows, and Glory one night becomes angry with her illicit lover, Jose, and tries to stab him. Running from the circus tent she is fired upon by Jose. Glory dies out on the sand dunes, alone.

Abel, hearing of the tragedy, takes his unfaithful wife out to sea for burial, saying that she is too bad to be interred in the soil of his forefathers and of his own people.

The townspeople hold a meeting to decide what shall be done with Joan's children and Abel, down and out though he is, appears and says he will take one of the boys. The people laugh at him, but Joan still believing in him, agrees that he shall take one of the boys. As time goes by Abel continues to worry, not being able to find work or regain his lost friends and one day he starts for the water front, intent upon drowning himself. He is followed by the lad, and when the child will not return and Abel realizes that if he goes into the water the boy will do likewise, gives up the idea of committing suicide and returns home.

Then Abel and Joan are reunited, the townspeople forgive the erring one, Abel returns to work and there is another wedding. Thus the life that seemed so dreary for both a few years ago, is again strewn with sunlight and happiness and the story end with two simple souls fired with Secretary-Treasurer Gruenhagen Co.

W. H. Gruenhagen, secretary-treasurer of the Gruenhagen Co., jobbers and distributors of this city, has just returned from Chicago and other eastern points completing arrangements for their line of electric goods, hardware specialties and other lines pertaining to their jobbing department for the season of 1921.

The Gruenhagen Co. expects to have at least three salesmen working out of Brainerd to cover five states, Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska, North and South Dakota.
